

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Your privacy is important to Baca Construction. This privacy statement provides information about the personal information that Baca Construction collects, and the ways in which Baca Construction uses that personal information.

Personal information collection and use:

Baca Construction does not collect personally identifiable information about its visitors unless you have submitted and/or e-mailed it. If you do not want your personal data collected, please do not submit it. Information you submit may be used to contact/communicate with you, offer or provide products or services to you and for other business purposes. Your information may be shared with or used by Baca Construction, service providers, vendors, government officials and financial institutions or others if required by litigation or law. Your information will be retained for as long as necessary to permit it to be used for the purposes described above and to comply with regulations or laws.

This website may automatically collect technical but not personally identifiable characteristics of web browsers and computers visiting this site. This information may be shared with others. Examples include Internet browser version and settings, the referring domain name and type of computer operating system.

Information and data security:

Security procedures have been put in place to safeguard and secure any information collected by this website. However, Baca Construction cannot guarantee that these security procedures will not be breached and Baca Construction will not be liable if information that belongs to you is obtained or used by an unintended person.

Contacting you:

Information submitted on this website and via other sources may be used to tell you about products and services that may interest you. To indicate a preference to not receive e-mails or other communications, please send a message to dan@dbaca.com. We may need to contact you regarding critical notices or legally mandated notices. Providing us with your phone number is optional. Your phone number may be displayed for references to potential and current clients on a "references" page of this website, but only after Baca Construction has your verbal or written permission. By submitting your phone number, you consent to being contacted via telephone, even if your name appears on the Federal "Do-not call List".

Updating this statement:

This website may update this privacy policy at any time by posting a new version on this website. You should check this page occasionally to ensure you are familiar with any changes. The privacy policy is effective as of January 1, 2008.

Other websites:

This website contains links to other websites. Baca Construction is not responsible for the privacy policies or practices of any third party.
